Summary: A tad angsty. A Matt POV poem in which he wonders how Mimi can love someone like him

Return To Me

> <meta name="Generator"> Looks like I screwed up again/

Looks like I screwed up again/
> Can't get out of the trouble I'm in
> I'm just as moody as I've always been
> And yet you Return To Me
> I really don't deserve your praise
> Or this hero worship that lasts for days
> I don't want you trapped in my haze
> Yet you still Return To Me
> What did I do that was so right?
> For you to heal my wounds after a fight?
> Why am I, of all men, your gallant knight?
> What makes you Return To Me?
> What words did I say that make you swoon?
> When does the sun so nicely compliment the moon
> Why do you say that destiny will join us soon
> Why do you Return To Me?
> How come your shadowing doesn't drive me insane
> Everything you say is all stored in my brain
> Why do you give me your hat whenever it rains?
> Mimi why do you Return To Me?
> I'm just a low life selfish jerk
> I'm always broken I can never work
> Yet you chase out my demons which in shadows always lurk
> How can you Return To Me?
> All your sweet nothings mean everything to me
> You're always so caring yet I'm blind to see
> This feels just so right, just like destiny
> Mimi Return To Me
